

Contents

- Why a statement of ethical principles and practice 1
- Duty of care related to clinical audit 3
- Protecting patients 4
 - 1. Informing patients 4
 - 2. Confidentiality pledge 5
 - 3. Confidentiality and security measures 5
 - 4. Patient consent to disclosure 5
 - 5. Patients as data sources 6
 - 6. Risks to patients 6
 - 7. Inclusive clinical audit programme 7
 - 8. Non-discrimination in case selection 7
 - 9. Patient involvement 8
 - 10. Acting responsibly 8
- Protecting professionals 9
 - 1. Best practice in clinical audit 9
 - 2. Resolution of conflicts 9
 - 3. Respecting healthcare professionals 9
 - 4. Including involved healthcare professionals 10
 - 5. Respecting clinical judgement 10
- Protecting the clinical audit process..... 11
 - 1. Clinical audit to benefit patients 11
 - 2. Effective clinical audit process 11
 - 3. Measures of good practice 11
 - 4. Reliable data 12
 - 5. Accountability for the quality of clinical audits 12
 - 6. Acting on clinical audit findings 12
 - 7. Guarding against negative effects 13
 - 8. Personal responsibility and accountability 13
 - 9. Collaboration 13
 - 10. Current competence 14
- Further reading 15