

Getting Clinical Audit Right to Benefit Patients Workshop

E M M	09.00	Registration
		Welcome and introductions Representative of the healthcare organization Healthcare Quality Quest workshop leader
		Clinical audit process — An overview of the right way to do clinical audit Brief presentation, Healthcare Quality Quest workshop leader How to decide what to audit — How to select subjects for audit Brief presentation Participants select important subjects for clinical audit
M A R	10.30	Break
	10.45	How to design a clinical audit to focus on improving care — How to express a clinical audit objective and how to select the number and type of cases or time period for an audit Brief presentation Participants design a clinical audit
		How to formulate measures of quality for a clinical audit — How to construct measures of quality for a clinical audit and how to outline the data collection process for the measures Brief presentation Participants develop measures for a clinical audit and outline a data collection process
R G O	12.30	Lunch
	13.30	How to formulate measures of quality for a clinical audit (continued) How to analyse audit findings including causes of problems — How compliance with audit measures is calculated and how to analyse causes of problems revealed by an audit Brief presentation Participants analyse problems to find actual or potential causes
	15.00	Break
O R	15.15	How to prepare to change practice — How to select actions needed to improve the quality of care Brief presentation Participants identify effective and feasible changes in practice needed to achieve an improvement in patient care Acting on learning Participants agree on next steps
	16.30	Workshop evaluation and adjourn
P		